President

Rob joined Clayton & McKerverey in 1988 and became president in 2016. He leads the firm devoted to providing proactive and specialized knowledge on the domestic and international tax and accounting issues impacting global companies. He's made it a priority to understand the needs and priorities of business owners, both in the U.S. and abroad. As such, he works in close collaboration with domestic and European chambers of commerce, business associations, and economic developers dedicated to supporting business growth. These mutually rewarding relationships provide him with an opportunity to help business owners maximize their goals for expansion and profitability.
