

Elijah Majeski is an artist and writer from Romeo, Michigan. Following his passion for the arts, he obtained a BFA with a concentration in Photography from the Pratt Institute in New York City in 2016. Following his graduation, he began working as an assistant to numerous artists to support exhibitions across the country.

As a Curatorial Assistant at Glenstone in Potomac, Maryland, Elijah coordinated presentations by notable international contemporary artists including Rirkrit Tiravanija, Faith Ringgold, Louise Bourgeois, Jeff Wall, Arthur Jafa, Dan Flavin, and Vija Celmins, among many others. In 2021, he returned to Detroit to serve as the Gallery Manager for Reyes | Finn in Detroit, Michigan. While at Reyes | Finn, Elijah oversaw the day-to-day operations of the gallery's program while building relationships with Southeastern Michigan's flourishing arts community.

As the Galeria Manager, he is eager to bring his years of experience as an arts professional to share the incredible collection of works at the Polish Institute for Culture and Research with the public.
